

Dear dental practitioner,

---

has previously been treated with the application of silver fluoride for active caries management. Should you notice any blackening/dark areas under/around existing fillings, between teeth or in open lesions please consider this in your dental evaluation.

The use of X-rays may be prudent for accurate evaluation.

Dear dental practitioner,

---

has previously been treated with the application of silver fluoride for active caries management. Should you notice any blackening/dark areas under/around existing fillings, between teeth or in open lesions please consider this in your dental evaluation.

The use of X-rays may be prudent for accurate evaluation.

Dear dental practitioner,

---

has previously been treated with the application of silver fluoride for active caries management. Should you notice any blackening/dark areas under/around existing fillings, between teeth or in open lesions please consider this in your dental evaluation.

The use of X-rays may be prudent for accurate evaluation.

Dear dental practitioner,

---

has previously been treated with the application of silver fluoride for active caries management. Should you notice any blackening/dark areas under/around existing fillings, between teeth or in open lesions please consider this in your dental evaluation.

The use of X-rays may be prudent for accurate evaluation.

Dear dental practitioner,

---

has previously been treated with the application of silver fluoride for active caries management. Should you notice any blackening/dark areas under/around existing fillings, between teeth or in open lesions please consider this in your dental evaluation.

The use of X-rays may be prudent for accurate evaluation.

Dear dental practitioner,

---

has previously been treated with the application of silver fluoride for active caries management. Should you notice any blackening/dark areas under/around existing fillings, between teeth or in open lesions please consider this in your dental evaluation.

The use of X-rays may be prudent for accurate evaluation.

Dear dental practitioner,

---

has previously been treated with the application of silver fluoride for active caries management. Should you notice any blackening/dark areas under/around existing fillings, between teeth or in open lesions please consider this in your dental evaluation.

The use of X-rays may be prudent for accurate evaluation.

Dear dental practitioner,

---

has previously been treated with the application of silver fluoride for active caries management. Should you notice any blackening/dark areas under/around existing fillings, between teeth or in open lesions please consider this in your dental evaluation.

The use of X-rays may be prudent for accurate evaluation.

